FRIDAY'S PERFORMANCE IS MADE POSSIBLE BY

National Bank
OF ARIZONA

The 2016/17 Season kicks off with the epic grandeur of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony. Tito Muñoz, in his third season as Virginia G. Piper Music Director, leads The Phoenix Symphony in a masterful interpretation of Beethoven's ever popular and powerful "Victory" symphony. Joining this program is 2009 London International Piano Competition winner, Behzod Abduraimov performing Rachmaninoff's technically challenging and compositionally brilliant Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini. Maestro Muñoz continues his tradition of highlighting young American composers by featuring Nina Young and her "sonic experience" composition, Remnants, which invites listeners to perceive the orchestra as one giant instrument – a resonating body.

BRAHMS:
Symphony No. 4*

Guest conductor Matthias Bamert joins The Phoenix Symphony and Chorus for an evening of Brahms and Stravinsky. Johannes Brahms' final and monumental Symphony No. 4 engages the audience with its autumnal lyricism and soaring themes. The Phoenix Symphony Chorus performs in Igor Stravinsky's Symphony of Psalms, a work based on Psalms 38, 49 and 150, and dedicated in part "to the glory of God." The program opens with another dramatic work by Brahms, the Tragic Overture which was the "weeping" counterpoint to his festive Academic Festival Overture, known for its dramatic trajectory and shattering close.

SHOSTAKOVICH:
Symphony No. 7

Maestro Tito Muñoz returns for a powerful performance of Shostakovich's Symphony No. 7, a patriotic hymn to his hometown of Leningrad and a rallying cry to the foes of fascism. This large orchestral work masterfully fuses Shostakovich's emotional themes and motifs into "music written with the heart's blood." Valley favorite, Concertmaster Steven Moeckel joins this program with a breathless performance of Samuel Barber's rhapsodic Violin Concerto. To open, Maestro Muñoz once again features the music of young American composer Adam Schoenberg for the third straight season, this time presenting Schoenberg's idyllic and lyrical Canto inspired by the birth of his son.

MESA AMPHITHEATRE

March 4, 2017 – 7:00 pm

Bridging the gulf between rock 'n' roll and classical music, The Phoenix Symphony will blow you away with the return of the popular Music of Led Zeppelin, performed under the stars at Mesa Amphitheatre. Amplified by a full rock band, creator Brent Havens will conduct the orchestra as they capture Led Zeppelin's sheer blast and power, riff for riff, while churning out new musical colors. The two-plus-hour outdoor concert features classic Zeppelin tunes, including "Stairway to Heaven," "Heartbreaker," "Black Dog," "Immigrant Song" and more.

MAGICAL MUSIC OF BROADWAY WITH LEA SALONGA

ORPHEUM THEATRE

May 5, 2017 – 7:30 pm
May 6, 2017 – 7:30 pm

From "Defying Gravity" to "Be Our Guest," The Phoenix Symphony celebrates the magical music of Broadway! Join The Phoenix Symphony as Tony Award-winning Broadway legend, Lea Salonga, the original star of Miss Saigon and later, Les Misérables and the singing voice of Disney's Princesses Jasmine and Mulan takes you to "a whole new world" and brings to life the Magical Music of Broadway.

BERNADETTE PETERS

MESA ARTS CENTER

October 15, 2016 – 7:30 pm

For one night only, veteran star of the Broadway stage, Bernadette Peters, joins forces with The Phoenix Symphony to perform favorites from Broadway shows and The Great American Songbook. Ms. Peters is perhaps best known for her definitive and iconic Broadway performances in S*unday in the Park with George, Song and Dance, Into the Woods* and Annie Get Your Gun. She is also widely acknowledged as the leading interpreter of the works of Stephen Sondheim. She has received countless accolades throughout her distinctive career, ranging from her Tony Awards to a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Don't miss this rare opportunity to hear a living legend of the musical theatre alongside The Phoenix Symphony, at Mesa Arts Center.

NEIL SEDAKA

MESA ARTS CENTER

February 3, 2017 – 7:30 pm

Join The Phoenix Symphony for a special evening on stage at Mesa Arts Center with Neil Sedaka, one of the music industry's most influential singer-songwriters. Mr. Sedaka wrote some of the biggest hit songs ever recorded, such as "Breaking Up Is Hard To Do," "Calendar Girl," "Love Will Keep Us Together" and "Laughter in the Rain." His chart topping songs were made famous by such legends as Connie Francis, Carole King, Elvis Presley, Frank Sinatra and Tom Jones, and earned him multiple Grammy Awards, the Sammy Cahn Lifetime Achievement Award and countless other accolades. Come hear him perform the unforgettable music that made him a modern classic.

CHOOSE YOUR EXPERIENCE

With options like traditional Symphony Hall performances, sacred church concerts, multimedia extravaganzas, intimate Meet the Artist luncheons and outdoor amphitheatre shows, choose the experiences that are right for you!

LISTEN & LEARN

Meet the Artist

Immediately following every Coffee Classics concert, The Phoenix Symphony invites you to enjoy a delicious luncheon and panel discussion with musicians, conductors and guest artists in Symphony Hall.

Musically Speaking

Musically Speaking is a series of pre-concert chats led by Maestro Muñoz held on the Symphony Hall stage in front of a live audience. These conversations begin 45 minutes prior to all Phoenix Symphony Classics and Coffee Classics concerts. Using an informal 15-minute format, a Symphony moderator interviews guest artists and members of the Symphony on stage at which time the audience is also invited to ask questions. Musically Speaking pre-concert chats are free to all ticketholders for each respective concert.

Parties of Note

This one-of-a-kind program offers you a chance to spend a unique evening in a special setting with fellow Symphony friends, with a specially prepared meal in some of the Valley's finest homes. Listen to live orchestral music and meet and mingle with Symphony musicians.

Events

Unique opportunities to enjoy the symphony and special guests. Savor the Symphony and Parties of Note offer behind the scenes access to the Symphony.

Mix & Mingle

Socialize with friends while drinking specialty cocktails like the TitoTini.

SAVINGS & CONVENIENCE

Easy to Add Parking

To make your concert experience even easier, The Phoenix Symphony has made special arrangements for prepaid parking options for all Symphony presentations at Symphony Hall.

Subscribe and Save

The average household can save more than $150 in ticketing fees by subscribing.

SUPPORT ARIZONA'S LARGEST ARTS ORGANIZATION

Donate and Receive Benefits

Donations from our patrons sustain the day-to-day operations of the Symphony. From the orchestral scores to the brilliant guest artists that grace the stage, The Phoenix Symphony relies on donations to make all components of an orchestral experience possible. There are many rewards to becoming a Patron of The Phoenix Symphony! Highlights include invitations to open rehearsals, intermission access to the society lounge, concert and series sponsorship, and photo opportunities with Tito Muñoz.
