Stravinsky’s Rite of Spring

SYMPHONY HALL
September 15, 2017  |  7:30 pm
September 16, 2017  |  7:30 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Tito Muñoz, conductor
Alexander Laing, clarinet
Philippe Quint, violin

Bernstein: Prelude, Fugue and Riffs
Stravinsky: The Rite of Spring

From the smoke-filled nightclubs of 1950s New York to the peasant villages of premodern Russia, Virginia G. Piper Music Director Tito Muñoz kicks off the 70th Anniversary Season with a bold and colorful program of musical masterpieces. Just over a century has passed since its scandalous premiere, yet Stravinsky’s folkloric ballet The Rite of Spring continues to surprise, excite and enthrall. In Prelude, Fugue and Riffs – a stroke of genius that pivots between polyrhythmic structures à la Stravinsky and the wailing strains of big band jazz – Muñoz and Principal Clarinetist Alex Laing usher in a season-long focus on the music of Leonard Bernstein. Virtuoso violinist Philippe Quint returns to Symphony Hall to perform Tchaikovsky’s sizzling Violin Concerto.

Dvořák’s Seventh Symphony

SYMPHONY HALL
September 30, 2017  |  7:30 pm
October 1, 2017  |  2:00 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Matthew Kasper, conductor
Stanislav Khristenko, piano

Messiaen: Les offrandes oubliées (The Forgotten Offerings)
Grieg: Piano Concerto
Dvořák: Symphony No. 7

In his last appearance with The Phoenix Symphony, Ukrainian-born pianist Stanislav Khristenko wowed the Arizona Republic with his “fine pianissimos and thunderous fortissimos.” See this brilliant artist in one of the most popular concertos in the repertoire: Grieg’s ardent Piano Concerto. Plus, Assistant Conductor Matthew Kasper leads The Phoenix Symphony in Dvořák’s Seventh Symphony – music that captures the energy, exuberance and promise of the composer’s beloved homeland. These concerts also feature the otherworldly sounds of Les Offrandes Oubliées (The Forgotten Offerings), an early work from Debussy disciple Olivier Messiaen.

Mozart and Sibelius

SYMPHONY HALL
November 3, 2017  |  11:00 am*
November 3, 2017  |  7:30 pm
November 4, 2017  |  7:30 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Tito Muñoz, conductor
Karen Sinclair, violin
Mark Deatherage, viola

Tina Tallon: Sear
Mozart: Sinfonia Concertante in E-flat major*
Sibelius: Symphony No. 1*

Be there at Symphony Hall as Tito Muñoz leads The Phoenix Symphony in the First Symphony of Sibelius – a symphonic masterwork of bracing sweep credited with launching the composer’s international career. In a special treat, the orchestra’s husband and wife duo Karen Sinclair and Mark Deatherage feature in Mozart’s richly melodic Sinfonia Concertante. The program opens with Tina Tallon’s Sear – a work that lives up to its name – as The Phoenix Symphony continues to feature the work of promising young American composers.

Beethoven’s Fourth Symphony

SYMPHONY HALL
November 10, 2017  |  7:30 pm
November 11, 2017  |  7:30 pm
November 12, 2017  |  2:00 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Tito Muñoz, conductor
Amy Dickson, saxophone

Timo Andres: Bathtub Shrine
Glass: Violin Concerto No. 1 (arranged for saxophone by Amy Dickson)
Beethoven: Symphony No. 4

Beethoven’s symphonies have endured for centuries, speaking to generation upon generation. Tito Muñoz conducts the rousing Fourth Symphony, a work deploying the woodwind instruments in an intimate manner reminiscent of chamber music. Two brightly colored works from American composers Timo Andres and Philip Glass – the latter featuring the return of prodigious soloist Amy Dickson on the saxophone – illuminate Beethoven’s masterpiece.

* Coffee Classics performances feature one hour of music selected from the weekend’s Classics program.

January 12, 2018 | 11:00 am*
January 12, 2018 | 7:30 pm
January 13, 2018 | 7:30 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Tito Muñoz, conductor
Jennifer Johnson Cano, mezzo-soprano

Mahler: Adagio from Symphony No. 10*
Bernstein: Symphony No. 1, “Jeremiah”
Brahms: Symphony No. 1*

Leonard Bernstein once exclaimed, “The work I have been writing all my life is about the struggle that is born of the crisis of our century: a crisis of faith.” With the “Jeremiah” Symphony, Bernstein began a musical exploration of his religious faith that would inspire many of his serious compositions. Johannes Brahms experienced his own crisis while composing his monumental First Symphony – that of escaping the shadow of Beethoven. Experience how these struggles gave way to two modern classics with Tito Muñoz and The Phoenix Symphony.

Sibelius and Debussy

SYMPHONY HALL
January 26, 2018 | 7:30 pm
January 27, 2018 | 7:30 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Karina Canellakis, conductor
Stewart Goodyear, piano

Britten: Four Sea Interludes from Peter Grimes
Saint-Saëns: Piano Concerto No. 5, “Egyptian”
Sibelius: The Oceanides
Debussy: La Mer (The Sea)

Guest Conductor Karina Canellakis makes her Phoenix Symphony debut in an imaginative, impressionistic program sure to make a splash. Debussy, Britten and Sibelius contribute works that capture the many moods of the sea, with its sun-drenched waves and watery depths. Pianist Stewart Goodyear, proclaimed “a phenomenon” by The Los Angeles Times, returns to Symphony Hall in the sensuous, exotic “Egyptian” Piano Concerto of French composer Camille Saint-Saëns, who reportedly wrote this dazzling work after a boat ride up the Nile.

Beethoven and Mozart

February 10, 2018 | 7:30 pm
February 11, 2018 | 2:00 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Tito Muñoz, conductor
Denis Kozhukhin, piano

Mozart: Symphony No. 35, “Haffner”
Arnold Schoenberg: Verklärte Nacht (Transfigured Night)
Beethoven: Piano Concerto No. 5, “Emperor”

Tito Muñoz leads a program featuring the radiant “Haffner” Symphony, written by a young Mozart to prove his talents to a discerning Viennese public. Beethoven’s magisterial final piano concerto – the “Emperor” – will be performed to perfection by the great Russian pianist Denis Kozhukhin in a highly-anticipated debut. Also, Schoenberg’s Verklärte Nacht (Transfigured Night) – a lush tone poem for strings on themes of love, desire and betrayal.

Brahms and Schumann

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Tito Muñoz, conductor
Friederike Starkloff, violin

Webern: Passacaglia
Schumann: Symphony No. 4*
Brahms: Violin Concerto*

Each of Brahms’ concertos can be counted among music’s towering masterpieces, and the formidable Violin Concerto may be the composer’s very finest. Internationally acclaimed violinist Friederike Starkloff (“superb – capricious, feisty and seductive” – Classical Source) makes her American debut to perform this exemplary work alongside Robert Schuman’s joyous Fourth Symphony and the romantic Passacaglia from Anton Webern.

* Coffee Classics performances feature one hour of music selected from the weekend’s Classics program.

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Tito Muñoz, conductor
Steven Moeckel, violin

Kenneth Fuchs: New Work (world premiere)
Korngold: Violin Concerto
Tchaikovsky: Symphony No. 5

Tchaikovsky poured his soul into each of his symphonies, expressing passion and pathos as no other composer has. Tito Muñoz leads Tchaikovsky’s searing Fifth Symphony. Also, Concertmaster Steven Moeckel solos in Korngold’s breathtakingly lyrical Violin Concerto. The program opens with a world premiere from American composer Kenneth Fuchs.

Mozart Piano Concerto No. 22

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Jeffrey Kahane, conductor and piano

Mozart: Piano Concerto No. 22
Dvořák: Nocturne in B major
Bartók: Concerto for Orchestra

Conducting from the keyboard, guest Jeffrey Kahane performs Mozart’s elegant Piano Concerto No. 22. Then, on the podium, he leads a concerto for the entire ensemble – Bartók’s sensational Concerto for Orchestra, a Phoenix Symphony specialty. Dvořák’s Nocturne for strings, which began life as the gorgeous slow movement of a string quartet, rounds out the program.

Rachmaninoff’s Second Symphony

SYMPHONY HALL
June 1, 2018  |  7:30 pm
June 2, 2018  |  7:30 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Tito Muñoz, conductor
Anne Akiko Meyers, violin

Bernstein: Overture to Candide
Adam Schoenberg: Violin Concerto
Rachmaninoff: Symphony No. 2

Celebrate the end of The Phoenix Symphony’s 70th Anniversary Classics Season with Rachmaninoff’s intensely passionate Second Symphony, showcasing the composer’s soaring melodies and opulent orchestral colors in abundance. Capping a season-long focus on the music of Leonard Bernstein, Tito Muñoz features the exuberant Candide Overture. Anne Akiko Meyers makes a welcome return to The Phoenix Symphony to perform Adam Schoenberg’s new violin concerto.

Elgar’s Cello Concerto

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Tito Muñoz, conductor
István Várdai, cello

Nina Young: Agnosco Veteris
Elgar: Cello Concerto
Mendelssohn: Symphony No. 3, “Scottish”

Hungarian cellist István Várdai debuts with The Phoenix Symphony in Elgar’s rhapsodic Cello Concerto – the composer’s swan song, full of melancholy and farewell. Plus, Mendelssohn’s stirring “Scottish” Symphony – a symphonic souvenir of his visit to the highlands. Tito Muñoz opens the program with Nina Young’s Agnosco Veteris, full of striking contrasts of mood and sonority.

Brahms and Schubert

SYMPHONY HALL

May 12, 2018  |  7:30 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE
Tito Muñoz, conductor
The Phoenix Symphony Chorus

Schubert: Symphony No. 8, “Unfinished”
Brahms: A German Requiem

Johannes Brahms established his reputation not with an orchestral work, but with a sacred choral work: his profoundly moving German Requiem, which he labored over for a dozen years. He found a musical language full of drama and touching intimacy. Tito Muñoz leads a romantic program featuring Brahms’ masterpiece alongside Schubert’s immortal “Unfinished” Symphony.

NEW SEAT MAPS FOR 2017/18 SEASON
Parties of Note
The popular Parties of Note series continues, with an array of intimate Symphony performances at the Valley’s most magnificent private homes. The 2017/18 Parties of Note event series will be even more spectacular, featuring spaces with world class art collections, stunning views and beautiful gardens. Each party features an exclusive performance by Phoenix Symphony musicians.

The 2017/18 Parties of Note event dates will be announced on The Phoenix Symphony website in the fall.

Individual tickets are $200

Savor the Symphony
January 19, 2018 | 11:00 am | Symphony Hall
One of the most talked about society events in 2017, the Savor the Symphony Women’s Luncheon, has become a signature fundraiser for The Phoenix Symphony, collectively raising over $700,000 to benefit the Symphony’s Education & Community Engagement programs that influence over 125,000 youth and adults in our community every year.

We are thrilled to announce that The Tenors will be the featured artist at the January 19, 2018 Savor the Symphony event! Guests will eavesdrop on The Tenors rehearsal with The Phoenix Symphony as they delight us with operatic pop music featuring a mixture of classical and pop songs. This one-of-a-kind women’s luncheon will once again generate buzz about the Symphony in our community and will simply be a lot of fun!

Individual tickets begin at $350
Sponsorships begin at $3,500
